The La Arcada SCAPE show was held on May 11th & 12th, as part of Arts Primavera. Many thanks to those who participated in the SCAPE in-gathering and show. With everyone's enthusiastic help, it went very smoothly. We sold almost 30 paintings and 30 percent of the proceeds were donated to the Environmental Defense Center.

"This exhibition is a testament to the timeless appeal of landscape, both as subject matter for artists and contemplative objects for viewers. The works I chose to honor bring a fresh approach to the tradition of landscape painting by distilling a particular subject to its essence, applying a personal filter that cuts out clutter, infusing a scene with emotional resonance or bringing overlooked details into sharp focus." – Suzanne Muchnic, art writer for The Los Angeles Times

"I was so pleased to be a part of the SCAPE show, and am thrilled to hear of the success! I'd like to pass along comments from family and friends: the show was very well-run! The quality was excellent, as well." –Sandy Russell

"The La Arcada show was outstanding in its cohesiveness and quality." – Paige Wilson
