Directions to Sedgwick Reserve

From Santa Barbara/South Coast/Lompoc

You can get to the Sedgwick Reserve via State Route 154/Cachuma Lake or via U.S. 101. If coming via 101, exit at the Buellton, State Route 246 exit and turn east. Come through Solvang and Santa Ynez to 154. Turn left. Coming from Lompoc, follow 246 until it intersects 154.

Going north on 154, watch for Edison Rd (2.2 miles), turn right on Edison (landmark is gray Lutheran church), go to Roblar (1.1 miles) and turn right. Go 1.2 miles to Brinkerhoff and turn left (landmark is row of evergreen trees). Follow Brinkerhoff 2.4 miles to the end of the road and enter through the open gate. Drive carefully to Studio near Reserve Office, where there is parking.

From Santa Maria Valley and North

Going south on U.S. 101, exit at State Route 101, Los Olivos. Go south on 154 for approximately 5 miles, passing a store and Dunn School on the right, then watching for Roblar Ave. Turn left (carefully as this is a dangerous intersection), and go 2 miles on Roblar to Brinkerhoff Ave. (landmark is row of evergreen trees). Turn left and go 2.4 miles to end of road. Enter through open gate. Drive carefully to Studio area near Reserve Office, where there is parking.
