ARNE WESTERMAN in Santa Barbara

"Paint with Greater Freedom"

A five-day watercolor workshop for beginners with some painting experience through professional

Monday, May 9 through Friday, May 13

$475 includes model fees

Build your best paintings ever with Arne's ideas on design and structure. Use his "no fault" 3-stage process to build clear-cut value patterns, attain strong compositions and develop good color. Know before you start that you're on the right track and headed for a successful piece of work. Arne will give plenty of demonstrations and slide programs and lots of individual attention. This workshop will be fun and full of great ideas to take home.

Arne Westerman is a painter of people: street people, dancers, chefs and waiters, kids and mothers and husbands and truck drivers and everything in between are fair game for his brush and palette. He is listed in Who's Who in American Art and is a signature member of the American Watercolor Society, the National Watercolor Society, and the watercolor societies of the Northwest and of Oregon. He has won many grand prizes and national awards for his paintings, which are in museums and other public and private collections throughout the U.S.

He is the author of Painting Watercolors Filled with Life and Energy and How to Become a Famous Artist Through Pain and Suffering, and has been featured in many art books on figures and watercolors.

Class members who want an individual critique during the workshop may bring up to 8 photos or originals (no slides, please) of their current work for suggestions as time permits.
